Gentlemen & Ladies:

92-90

Cold Calling is vital to my business.
It is the life blood of my prospecting. If your idea of restricting cold calling takes effect, you will be having a disastrous effect on the real estate industry, and hundreds of thousands of realtors. Please don't take this precious method of doing business away from us.

Sincerely,

Tony Wiszowaty

Attn: Docket No. 92-90

Washington, D.C. 20554

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to let you know that I as a residential real estate agent cannot continue to be successful in this business if I am restricted from making cold calls on the telephone. I am imploring you not to draft a regulation to restrict person-to-person solicitations to residential homes.

The residential real estate industry cannot continue to grow and attempt to bring this country out of its present economic condition if this restraint of trade should be imposed on our industry.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter and we implore you to reconsider this regulation.

Yours very truly,

Jackie Conner Sands

to whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that the F.C.C. is drafting legislation to restrict person-to-person solicitation to residential homes. In the real estate industry we refer to this as "Cold calling" and it is an extremely important part of our business.

I would urge you to reconsider Rocket no.

92-90, Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991.

The real estate industry is an important part of our economy and we all know our economy doesn't need any legislation inhibiting its growth.

Sincerely,

Edon Wilson
